A proactive approach to protecting your mental health during the pandemic.

Be positive. Find opportunities for growth in your daily life; make sure you access accurate information and advice.

Cultivate Compassion. Be kind to yourself and others; show tolerance.

Interact with others. Make time for positive interactions and maintaining relationships.

Take time for yourself. Maintain your personal space and allow others to do that too.

Have some fun. Play and laugh.